Become a Friend of The Pastel Society

Application Form

The Pastel Society was founded in 1898, and the first exhibition held in the Royal Institute in Piccadilly. Founder members and early exhibitors included Brangwyn, Degas, Rodin, Rothenstein, Whistler and GF Watts.

The Society is widely recognised for the promotion and development of painting in pastels, and its members are professional artists living and working in this country and overseas.

Friends' support is vital and appreciated by The Pastel Society. It enables it to broaden its charitable activities and it is also a great way to meet people with a shared love of pastels and all dry media.

To become a Friend of The Pastel Society, the fees are:

The Pastel Society UK

We are one of the oldest societies in the world and are recognised as the foremost in the field of working with pastels and other dry media. Our aim is to constantly promote the medium by means of exhibitions, tutorial workshops, demonstrations and lectures to Art Societies throughout the country.

The Pastel Society holds an Annual Exhibition at the Mall Galleries, London, situated on the Mall itself, with its many Royal connections. Non-members are invited to submit work at the Annual Exhibition. The Society has associations with the Pastel Society of Canada and the Société des Pastellistes de France. The Society also arranges exhibitions at institutions and galleries nationally.

Painting can sometimes be a solitary occupation, so we welcome the opportunity to share our skills – whether through workshops or events – and socialise with Friends. In turn, we hope this will inspire them to help us promote pastels and other drawing mediums to a broader audience, while celebrating its unique qualities.
